FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Ten Eastern Illinois University faculty members have received "outstanding" Merit Awards for the 1981-82 school year in three categories: teaching, research and creative activity, and service.

Each award is for $1,000. The outstanding teaching recipients are Dr. E. G. Gabbard, Theatre Arts; Joyce Felstehausen, Career Occupations; Carol Armstrong, Home Economics; Dr. Edward Sherman, Chemistry.

For research and creative activity: Dr. David Appleby, Music; Dr. Russell Carlson, Chemistry; Dr. Bruce Guernsey, English.

For service:

Kathleen Doyle, Health Education; Dr. Sharon Bartling, English; Dr. Joyce Crouse, Home Economics.

Nominations may be made by any member of the University community. President Daniel E. Marvin, Jr. said "in order to receive an award, a faculty member must have demonstrated an exceptional contribution to the University" in the three categories.

Dr. Stanley Rives, Vice President for Academic Affairs, said the service division of the awards involved service both to the University and to the community.

Nominations were evaluated by a selection committee and recommendations were then made to Marvin.
